Mandal Rotary Club 7.-10. August

Mandal is a small, picturesque town on the southern tip of Norway, famous for its white, small houses and beautiful beaches..

You can look forward to exploring the coastal life here by foot, in a kayak and by motor boat.

We will have lots of fun with beach volleyball, waterskiing, museums and attractions, bike riding and a visit to the famous light house at Lindesnes, the southern most point of Norway.

And to top it all: the town's yearly big event, the «Skalldyrfestivalen» (the Seafood-festival) takes place while you're in Mandal, with music and concerts everywhere, happenings, tastings, markets, art exhibitions and lots of visitors.

Notodden Rotary Club 10.-13. August

The small town of Notodden is an Unesco world heritage town. You will during your stay learn about cultural heritage, see the famous Heddal Stave Church, learn about the heavy water, industrial history, and do mountain activities in Rjukan.

Notodden is also situated on a fresh water lake, called Heddalsvannet, where we will go hiking, kayaking and do other outdoor activities. If you have the opportunity – bring your own sleeping bag!

Svelvik Rotary Club 13.-16. August

Svelvik Rotary Club invites you to explore the region around them. Svelvik is another small town with nice houses, lots of beautiful flowers situated near the Drammen Fjord. Villa Rørvik will accommodate the participants during the stay. Here you will find lovely hiking areas, beach, fishing- and swimming options.

The plan is to include a guided tour of Norway's capitol Oslo, which is close by.
