Their physical abilities, health conditions and swimming experience must be in accordance with a week of sailing on the Mediterranean Sea.

The participants will be hosted aboard the boat from Saturday June 20th to Friday June 26th, then hosted in a luxury mobile home in a 4 stars campground Taxo-Les-Pins in Argeles-sur-Mer, until their departure Monday June 29th.

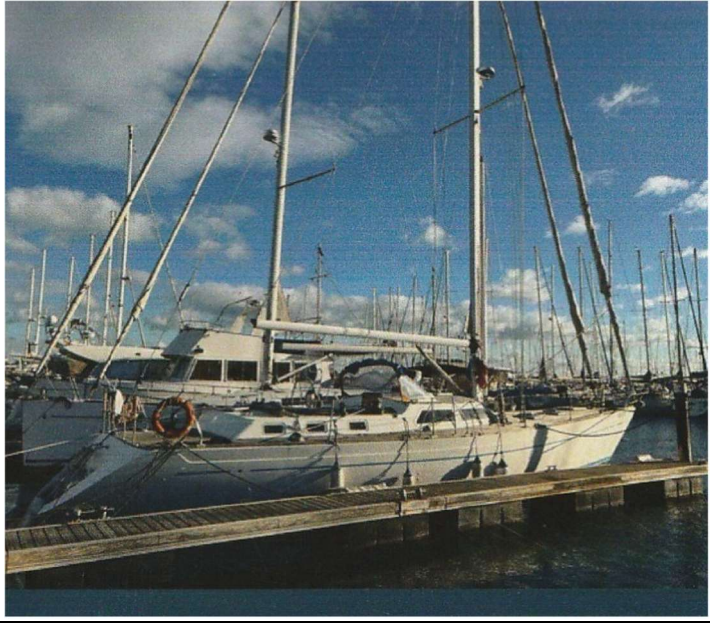

In addition to sailing, there will be several events organized by local Rotary Clubs in Port-la-Nouvelle, Saint-Cyprien and Roses, visits of the cities Collioure, Roses and Perpignan will complete the activities. One day of diving and swimming around Cap Creus (Spain) is also planned.

Because of possible bad weather conditions, the program is subject to changes at the last minute.
